

K12 Professional Technology Services Delivery Area

Archi-Technology provides direct, onsite services to NYS school districts and their Architects that are located in the Regional Information Centers (RICs) shown below.

Districts in the eastern NYS can use our network of credentialed professionals who are certified by Archi-Technology to provide our proven technology services.

Professional Technology Services Delivery Area

Archi-Technology provides direct, onsite services to owners, architects and Construction Management firms that are located in central and western New York State as shown below.

